Matthew 5. 43-end

‘You have heard that it was said, “You shall love your neighbour and hate your enemy.” But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax-collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect

We meet in the presence of God.

We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice and peace.

We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror.

We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

An older person would say

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old; age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

A younger person may reply

At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.

All We will remember them.

The beginning of the two-minute silence .Silence is kept.

The Kohima Epitaph is said

When you go home tell them of us and say,
for your tomorrow we gave our today.

The following prayer is said

Ever-living God, we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence;
may that same peace calm our fears,
bring justice to all peoples and establish harmony among the nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Hymn 498 Son of God, Eternal Saviour

Micah 4.1-5

In days to come the mountain of the LORD's house
shall be established as the highest of the mountains,
and shall be raised up above the hills.
Peoples shall stream to it,
and many nations shall come and say:
'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the house of the God of Jacob;
that he may teach us his ways
and that we may walk in his paths.'
For out of Zion shall go forth instruction,
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
He shall judge between many peoples,
and shall arbitrate between strong nations far away;
they shall beat their swords into ploughshares,
and their spears into pruning-hooks;
nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war anymore;
but they shall all sit under their own vines and under their own fig
trees, and no one shall make them afraid;
for the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.
For all the peoples walk, each in the name of its god,
but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

Psalm 62.5–end

R God alone is my rock and my salvation.

Wait on God alone in stillness, O my soul; for in him is my hope.
He alone is my rock and my salvation, my stronghold, so that I shall not be shaken. In God is my strength and my glory; God is my strong rock; in him is my refuge. R

Put your trust in him always, my people; pour out your hearts before him, for God is our refuge. The peoples are but a breath, the whole human race a deceit; on the scales they are altogether lighter than air.
R

Put no trust in oppression; in robbery take no empty pride; though wealth increase set not your heart upon it. God spoke once, and twice have I heard the same, that power belongs to God.
Steadfast love belongs to you, O Lord, for you repay everyone
according to their deeds. R

Philippians 4.6-9

Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just,
whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.
